WORLD CHAMBER JAZZ ENSEMBLE, CUARTETO NUEVO, TO PERFORM FALLBROOK

FALLBROOK CA. – Returning to Fallbrook by popular acclaim, Fallbrook Music Society brings the one-of-a-kind musical ensemble, Cuarteto Nuevo back to Fallbrook on Sunday, February 18 at 2 p.m. Cuarteto Nuevo is nothing short of exhilarating, and Fallbrook is fortunate to be one of their first stops during their upcoming Western States tour.

“Cuarteto Nuevo’s virtuoso musicians skillfully blend their music with a contemporary flair along with the new sounds of their “Jazz Road Suite,” said Bob Freaney, President of Fallbrook Music Society. “We’ve had numerous folks asking when they can see Cuarteto Nuevo back in Fallbrook – I can’t count the number of “wow” comments by patrons at the end of their last concert.” “This is a must-see performance,” he concluded.

Cuarteto Nuevo provides a mesmerizing musical experience that transcends borders and genres. The group’s unique sound is a testament to their masterful fusion of different music genres. Their unique instrumentation – soprano Saxophone (Damon Zick), cello (Jacob Szekely), guitar (Kenton Youngstrom) and hand percussion (Felipe Frage) – richly colors their wide-ranging repertoire. The dynamic group will be joined at this performance by Grammy Award-winning Jazz Pianist and Arranger, Bill Cunliffe.

Winners of two South Arts Jazz Road Tours grants, the ensemble has composed a suite of works composed by the band’s members new entitled ‘Jazz Road Suite,’ which explores the connection between jazz and geographical and cultural locations. Each composition was written to invoke a unique feeling of place for each of the included states Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah and Wyoming, among others. Quarteto Nuevo's Jazz Road Suite: Western States is made possible with the support of Jazz Road, a national initiative of South Arts which is funded by the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation with additional support from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.
